PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Employer Branding, Social Media & Communication Manager

Salvador Caetano | Mar 2024 – Present

I develop marketing and communication strategies, create content and write copy that brings ideas and stories to life. My work spans employer branding, recruitment marketing and internal communication, as well as managing social media and corporate websites. I coordinate projects from planning to execution, support the organization of corporate events, and analyze performance metrics to measure results, identify opportunities and optimize communication strategies.

Digital Experience & Marketing Manager | Portugal SPOC

COCUS Portugal | Jun 2023 – Mar 2024

I developed and implemented marketing strategies across Employer Branding, Recruitment Marketing, B2B and Internal Communication, while creating engaging content and managing social media. My role also involved producing marketing and sales materials, presentations, internal newsletters and website articles, as well as strengthening the employer brand through internal and external communications. Alongside supporting corporate events, I tracked and analyzed performance metrics to evaluate content effectiveness and identify opportunities for optimization.

Employer Branding & Recruitment Marketing Team Leader

Salvador Caetano | Nov 2022 – Jun 2023

I managed a multidisciplinary team and oversaw social media and corporate websites, defining communication strategies, creating copy and visual content, managing online communities and analyzing performance metrics. My responsibilities also included developing employer branding and recruitment marketing strategies, tracking KPIs across digital platforms and communication channels, and identifying opportunities to optimize content performance. Alongside project management and supporting the organization of corporate events, I worked to strengthen brand presence and ensure consistency across communication channels.

Social Media, Corporate Communications, Corporate Identity & Employer Branding Manager

Salvador Caetano | Feb 2022 – Nov 2022

I managed social media and corporate digital channels, defining strategies, creating copy and visual content, engaging with online communities, and analyzing performance metrics. My role also involved developing employer branding and recruitment marketing strategies, managing internal communications and creating newsletters to support employee engagement. I oversaw corporate identity and branding assets, ensuring consistency across logos, fonts, templates, presentations and videos, and led the creation of Salvador Caetano's new corporate presentation and institutional video. Additionally, I supported the organization of corporate events and managed the group's corporate auditorium at headquarters, while tracking performance data to identify opportunities for optimization and improve communication effectiveness.

Multimedia Communication, Corporate Identity & Social Media

Salvador Caetano | Jun 2017 – Feb 2022

I created video and photography content for several Salvador Caetano companies, developed internal newsletters and communication materials, and managed corporate visual identity assets to ensure brand consistency across different platforms and materials. My responsibilities also included graphic design, social media strategy and management, copywriting, community management, and performance analysis to identify opportunities for optimization. Alongside managing and maintaining corporate websites, I supported the planning and organization of corporate events and oversaw the group's corporate auditorium at headquarters.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Author - Atlantic Books | 2026

I'm the author of "Ainda Estamos Aqui." This book was born from my personal journey with depression and anxiety and it's a collection of thoughts and reflections from difficult moments.
Writing helped me get through. Sharing it is my way of reminding others they're not alone.
